Problem Description

A show that shows teens buying and using illegal drugs, having sex. The actors in some cases are under 18 themselves. As a mom of two teens, one of whom is having a difficult time, it is so upsetting that this show is showing constant drug use and casual sex. I am trying to prevent my 14 year old daughter from seeing it, but the marketing of this show has roped her in, and she is going to try to watch it when I am asleep, or I am sure she can easily access it on the internet. I cannot believe the content of this show is allowed on MTV, a network directed at pre teens and teens. It is hard enough to be a parent of teens today with all the garbage on the internet. I beg you - look at the show. I hear it is going to get worse. PLEASE DO SOMETHING!

This show targets teens as well as preteens and shows underage drinking, illegal drug use, and alludes to underage children having sex. This show needs to be cancelled immediately and investigated for child pornography. I am going to look into which businesses are advertising during this show's time slot and contact them to cease their advertisements. In addition I am contacting my cable outlet to cancel my subscription if this show is not immediately cancelled.

Problem Description

MTV is airing this show promoting "real life" situations. NOT, it's to make MONEY. This exploitation of kids is sick and twisted. These kids are put into intimately emotional and physical situations that adversely affect their well being. "Real life" has many evil situations: rape, incest, murder, torture...Should the media be allowed to make money off the back of these victims by exploiting them? Sex trafficking children is huge business and they are trying to lower the bar and have everyone be "okay" with it. One actor is only 15 years old!

Problem Description

This was a program that has no gone above and beyond what should be allowable on television. It's not only the fact that you have programming that is clearly not appropriate for children (teenage sex, drug use, language), but it appears that these are REAL teenagers (under 18) in obscene acts (not 21 year olds, pretending to be 15). Someone should really look into whether this program is even legal to broadcast considering the content and shame on MTV for thinking about the consequences.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

(My initial response was sent before it was completed) Interestingly, this program is directed to teens but is rated in such a manner that teens are not to watch it. it is blatantly exploiting young people in sexual and substance abusive scenes, and should be removed from the airways immediately. Furthermore, it is an illegal abusive use of minors, encouraging illegal and immoral behavior.

The producers of this show have shown no regard for our children. I for one would not allow any of my children to watch this series. But there are other parents out there that have no idea what there children are watching for lack of parenting skills. This show is way over the top. Being born and raised in this great country I am all for free speech but this is way over the top. Our children are our future. What type of future will we have if these types of programs are aired with no regard for the possible impact it may have on our children... Please investigate this and remove it from our airways to set a example to other networks. This kind of programming does not educate it manipulates.... Viacom should be totally held responsible for there actions.....

Problem Description

On January 17, 2011 the Viacom-owned cable network MTV aired a teenager-based drama, ?Skins.? The episode included all manner of foul language, illegal drug use, illegal activity as well as thoroughly pervasive sexual content. Many of the actors appearing in the show are below the age of 18. It is clear that Viacom has knowingly produced material that may well be in violation of [several] federal statutes. ?Skins? features underage actors engaged in sexual situations. The youngest star of the show is 15!

Nielsen ratings for the premiere, which was heavily promoted during MTV's TV-14 hit ?Jersey Shore,? show that it drew 1.2 million people younger than 18, or more than a third of its total audience.

With all the problems our youth are facing today, I was horrified to see MTV put this disgusting show on the air. I was appalled when I saw one scene and I had to change the channel, but grieved because I know teens are watching this filth. This show is despicable and irresponsible! Where do we draw the line as a society? How much more filth do they have to show for the sake of ratings and making money. MTV is contributing to the youth problems we see in our society today. God help this next generation!

Problem Description

Completely inappropriate for tv.viewing. With such young ages (teens - actors) in the show it seemed to be geared to that same young age (teens) in all its previews before it aired. All the teens in my area couldn't wait to see it. I watched it and could not believe the horrible, inappropriate content. If you have to make a show like this, use adults as actors and don't make it out to be suitable viewing for teens in your previews.

I saw an advertisement for a new series on MTV called Skins, it looked just like a soft porn show (sex and drugs use) and I am so opposed to this type show. It is hard enough to raise well adjusted kids without this trash being shown on tv. This will just add to the moral decay of our nation.

Problem Description

To whom it may concern,

As a parent, I am VERY concerned about the new series called "Skins" airing on MTV. The show depicts acts of drug abuse, sex, prostitution, and other questionable acts involving teens which most in our society find inappropriate. Though I understand an argument could be made for "freedom of speech (and/or expression)", the fact that this shows uses teen actors (or even actors depicting teens) would cause me to question whether or not any laws which protect minors are being violated. I understand that the FCC has jurisdiction over communication broadcasted over American air waves and that because this show is broadcast over "cable" there may be little you are able to do. However, what about satellite TV providers like DirecTV (whom our family uses) or Dish, can't the FCC regulate satellite TV providers since their broadcasts are over American air waves? I sincerely hope that as a nation we can set a better example to our children and future generations of what is ethically acceptable and unacceptable before our nation goes the way of the ancient Greek and Roman empires.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] bb

Problem Description

I had the misfortune of passing by this channel while idly watching TV. At 30 years old, the content of this show disgusts me. I thought I had somehow landed on an adult show, until I realized that this was a show aimed at teenagers. The sexual nature of the material was that of what we used to see on "skin-a-max" when I was in high school. I find it abhorrent that it is considered socially acceptable to expose our children, who are already experimenting with sex at much too early an age, to media glorifying teenage sexual promiscuity and sexual deviance.....

Problem Description

The episode included all manner of cursing, illegal drug use, illegal activity as well as thoroughly pervasive sexual content, and on top of that many of the actors and actresses appearing in the episode are below the age of 18. In my mind I believe the actors and actresses who are underage were exploited including having underage actors engaging in sexual encounters. I ask you to please go after MTV, Viacom, Executives, and producers/other staff on the show and make them legally accountable for what I see as Child Pornography. An example needs to be made so others do not push Child Pornography in this form ever again. I ask for you to investigate and press charges and not just give them a slap on the wrist.

Thank you for your time.

Skins is a TV show where they show teens doing ridiculous things in their last year of high school. These "things" include sex, drugs and attempted suicide. I am a 25 yr. old female and disgusted by this show. This show is portraying the idea that it is cool to lie to your parents, have promiscuous sex and drugs are cool. It is not appropriate to make out in the lunch room of a high school. It is not appropriate for a character on the show to have sex with another male character just so he will lose his virginity. Skins is another example of horrible TV that MTV is producing. If I had kids they would no way shape or form be allowed to watch this show.

I am sure you are letting your kids/grandchildren watch this show and are even encouraging them to apply to be on it, if not then pull MTV's license and charge the executives with criminal acts against children.

You need to stand up and do what's right.

Your reactions to this type of programming is the same as a frog put in hot water, a frog thrown in a pot of boiling water will jump out. If you put a frog in a pot of cool water and slowly turn up the heat, the frog will not jump out. The frog will not realize what he is in until it is too late and he boils to death. You have allowed the programming on MTV to do this to you.

MTV has slowly turned up the heat on you and you have allowed it until now you think this show is OK when in-fact it is killing you and your kids and you do not even feel it.

Underage drinking, illegal drug use and sexual exploitation of underage teens. WTF? What has become of the FCC. You allow programs like this to further deteriorate and blur the line between children and adults? What's next? Out and out Child porn? No wonder this country is going to hell in a hand basket. Do you deny our youth are not influenced by the powerful MTV that many watch for hours daily? How sad you have allowed this to infiltrate an already over sexualization of our youth. Would you let your 12 year old participate or watch this show? Have you no guts to do what's right?

This show was uncalled for: pornographic in content, with underage actors glamorizing a lifestyle of loose, unprotected sex with multiple partners, drug and alcohol use, and overall snotty behavior. How can they have kids under 18 doing the same thing on TV that people get thrown in jail for? Even if it is on late at night, DVR makes it possible for the shows to be recorded and watched at any time. Plus, the commercials air at all times of the day, exposing my family to scenes I do not want imprinted on their young minds.

I am absolutely outraged over this child porn show that MTV is producing. I saw it last night for the first time. Absolutely the most decadent and destructive show I've ever seen on television in 40 years. I work with teen youth professionally and I can't even begin to articulate the damage that a show like this is going to do to your youth culture.

If the FCC does not take action against this television show then what is the point of having an FCC and decency laws. These are our public airwaves. Please protect them and force MTV to remove this show from their broadcasting.

Problem Description

I would like the FCC to look into MTV's television show "Skins." The show is littered with sexually suggestive poses and half-exposed breasts with children as young as the age 15. There were 42 depictions and references to drugs and alcohol in the premiere episode with the children. According to the New York Times "In an early version, a naked 17-year-old actor is shown from behind as he runs down a street. The actor, Jesse Carere, plays Chris, a high school student whose erection ? assisted by erectile dysfunction pills ? is a punch line throughout the episode."

Again, according to the New York Times, "Child pornography is defined by the United States as any visual depiction of a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct. In some cases, ?a picture of a naked child may constitute illegal child pornography if it is sufficiently sexually suggestive,? according to the Justice Department?s legal guidance. Anyone younger than 18 is considered to be a minor."

Clearly MTV's show "Skins" has violated this standard. I urge you to look into it and to prosecute anyone who has violated the child pornography laws. I would also ask you to have MTV cease to show this show immediately.

Problem Description

MTV is airing this filthy program at 9 pm central, which is ILLEGAL! The unsolicited obscene material is being sent to children!!! The material in this program is disgusting, immoral, upsetting, and is telling our CHILDREN that what is shown here is "okay." One of the actresses in this series is reportedly only 15 years old. Only fifteen!!! I believe that using a minor to depict sexual acts (even if it does not technically involve nudity) and profiting from that depiction, could constitute "child exploitation!" This show is wrong. It will not be tolerated in my house, my relatives houses, or my friends houses. MTV will also no longer be viewed in these houses either. I expect a call back stating that my opinion and thousands of others has been heard and MTV will be removing this program from our kid's eyes. The children of this country deserve better than this trash that is being placed before them. Thank You.

This show is taking things a bit far. Children, young teens and teens watch MTV and to have such a loose show on this channel is sickening. Drug use, sex, etc...you name it they have it on. I would like to see some values come back and to see this show removed.

Problem Description

My daughter started watching this show and I was completely appalled at what I was seeing. This kind of show should NOT be shown. The teenage sex, language and drug use was absolutely disgusting. Our kids have to see enough garbage and inappropriate stuff in school and normal everyday life. This show is so immoral that no child should even have the choice to watch it. Please remove this show or make them at least tone it down to PG.

Problem Description

Even the advertising for this program is indecent! It shows multiple girls lying in their underwear surrounding a boy whose pants are undone. Underage sex is still a crime in most communities, yet MTV is openly promoting it.

Years ago, MTV was about music videos. Now it is just a purveyor of vulgarity and kiddie porn. Meager FCC fines only encourage them to produce more filth and enhance their publicity. The entire network should be shut off the air.

The show is disgusting! I had to turn it off after 20 minutes. I'm a high school teacher and yes?there are SOME students that live to party all weekend and sleep with whomever they want?.but that SHOULD NOT BE SHOWN as a ? GLAMOROUS and ACCEPTABLE? lifestyle. It's just down right GROSS! Not everybody's doing it! I will not watch anything on MTV anymore. And it was stated in an online article that this is ?adult content??oh my gosh?...what moral adult COULD watch these young kids and think that is acceptable? Trash.

Problem Description

The MTV program the "Skins" is what is wrong with the youth today. Sexual themes from kids 18 or younger, drug use, foul language, it is a shame that a station like MTV, who has crossed the line for years with their shows were brazen enough to create a show like this. People can say all they want about parenting, but when I heard about this show from my 9 year old daughter who learned of the show from kids in her 3rd grade class, I watched a re-airing and was disgusting by what I saw. All the work I do to keep my daughter respectful, drugs are bad approach and in a day of school, kids talk about it saying "teenagers do this, I can't wait to be a teenager". Please do something about this show, this Network. Again, my daughter has not seen it, but kids in her class have and kids today are influenced by peers. It makes parenting that much rougher with this kind of filth being allowed to be aired.

Problem Description

The show, Skins, which debuted this past Monday is completely out of line for regular cable programming. During the show, it promoted heavy drug use, sex, theft, etc. The basis of the particular episode was to help a guy lose his virginity by paying off a scapegoat girl with drugs to have sex with him. We don't live in a perfect world, but this show has absolutely NO value to it and encourages teens to engage in a lifestyle that can be regrettable someday. That is if they don't die in it before that happens. I'm a 30 year old Air Force guy with a young son. I watch plenty of television shows with mature content, but this is completely out of control and wrong!

This is a terrible show. It glorifies disrespect, sex, drugs and irrational behavior. For example one of the characters nick name is nipples. They refer to getting laid, sexual favors and so on. The content is offensive and the language is just as bad. I turned it off after 5 minutes due to the awful nature of the show. I would love to see it pulled off the air- it's not even worthy of paid cable like HBO/Showtime.

This show is completely vulgar. How can it be legal to tape and then televise underage kids participating in drug use and sex? This cannot be considered reality since these kids know they are being taped for an MTV show, this drives them to be more controversial in their actions. How can it be legal/morally right to have these kids in situations that persons would be arrested for in real life and also the mere fact that all the participants are under 18 and the show is rated TV-MA! They can live it, but not watch it!

I agree with the following statement for the show called "SKINS" produced by MTV. "The show features several teenage actors engaging in ?foul language, illegal drug use, illegal activity as well as thoroughly pervasive sexual content,? PTC President Tim Winter said in a letter sent to the chairmen of the U.S. Senate and House Judiciary Committees." THIS SHOW SHOULD BE PULLED FROM THE AIR AS IT IS NOT FIT FOR TV. WHY TEACH A YOUNG AUDIENCE WHO WILL WATCH IT TO BECOME JUVENILE DELINQUENT, DRUG USERS? Thank goodness for "Taco Bell Pulls Ads From Controversial MTV Show 'Skins' Amid Child Porn Accusations."

Problem Description

MTV is promoting this show to children under the age of 18.

Dialogue:

Stanley: "It's totally normal for a kid of 16 not to have had sex."

Tony: "It's embarrassing, Stan. So we go to a party and get some girl racopiously spliffed up, in a confused state, and she comes to believe, however momentarily of course, that you're attractive, and she bangs your brains out."

Stanley: "Michelle said tonight at the party..."

Katie: "You're going to dope me into outer space and then bang my brains out? Later we'll get bumping."

Stanley: "At the party."

Katie: "At the party with a pile of drugs."

Stanley: "You got it."

Katie: "Oh, and Stanley, I only like really great narcotics, you understand?"

Skins not only featured dozens of instances of high-school children using foul language it also contained depictions and descriptions of high-school children discussing and engaging in sex high-school children discussing and engaging in the use of illegal drugs high-school children discussing and engaging in the use of alcohol high-school children stealing an automobile and then crashing it into a lake and countless other descriptions and depictions of graphic, adult-themed activity.

This is highly offensive to me. As a mother of young children, and as a avid youth worker I oppose strongly this t.v. show. Underage drinking, drug abuse, sexual encounters--is this really what we believe our young people deserve? They are worth so much more, DO NOT insult the goodness that they can be by allowing this kind of demoralizing show to go on.

Respectfully, [REDACTED]

I myself have not seen the program, but have heard of its material being far beyond acceptable television. I'm asking for a thorough investigation into this show, what these teens have been doing in front of a camera, while getting paid no less. The filthy language, open sexuality, and drug use should not be on television, especially on a station that is so very popular among young people, including teens and younger. Enough is enough. This station is making big money, while teaching our young people how to destroy their lives.

Problem Description

This show should be taken off the air. It premiered on January 17, 2011 on MTV and shows teenagers using foul language, breaking the law, using illegal drugs, disrespecting adults and engaging in sexual acts. As parents, we have a hard enough time trying to raise our children to be respectful, responsible adults without adding a show like this for teenagers to sneak and watch and learn how to do exactly the opposite.

Problem Description

*I have not viewed this on TV.
As a parent, I am asking you to please investigate MTV's program "Skins" and determine whether it has violated laws regarding obscenity and child pornography. I am sure Viacom is hoping the "buzz" will equate to higher ratings, and possibly in pursuit of those ratings, MTV's standards have dropped lower and lower over the years. But it should still be required to abide by the law, and you have an obligation to enforce the law and protect children from being exploited. Thank you in advance for your careful consideration of whether a violation has occurred. I will be waiting to see how this is handled.

Problem Description

There is indecent exposure, sexual contact with minors, and open drug and alcohol use by minors on the program. It is extremely offensive and should not be aired at all. I am appalled that a show which is clearly marketed towards teenagers has such adult content with an adult content rating. Who are you kidding?

Problem Description

The MTV show "SKINS" with the TV rating TV-MA, showed teenagers engaging in illegal drug use and showed pornographic images of children under the age of 18 in sexual situations. If MTV intended the audience to be adults over the age of 18, then they are peddling child pornography, the exploitation of minors, and contributing to the delinquency of the minors who are on the program. If the intended audience was under 18, then they are exploiting minors to minors and contributing to the delinquency of minors. Regardless of the intended audience, the material is so graphic in nature, promoting various illegal activities and calling it, as MTV quotes, "responsibility to our viewers." This is irresponsibility to promote a culture of illegal activity in our impressionable youth. It is obscene, profane and indecent exposure of teenagers who are looking for their 15 minutes of fame. Shame on MTV and Viacom! Also, please help us as consumers so that we don't have to pay for this channel with our cable service. I have small children and do not want them exposed to this garbage! Thank you.

Problem Description

While watching a weight loss program on MTV, my wife and I have been repeatedly subjected to advertisements for a new program called Skins in which it appears minors are repeatedly engaging in all kinds of sexually obscene behaviors. We are forced to turn off our tv whenever these appear and are outraged that there would be what appears to be child pornography on our TV set at home. Please investigate this outrageous program.

Problem Description

Show opens with vulgar and open references to teenage sex, explicit language referring to teenage children sexually. The show closes with a teen girl who made a deal to have sex with another teen passing out from a drug overdose, which they attempt to turn into a "humorous" situation as a bag of weed floats up after the children crash a stolen car and walk off laughing. The show glorifies children having sex and using drugs. It is popularizing illegal and dangerous behavior by using teenagers to promote these actions and falsely showing them in an acceptable and benign way. The show exploits teenage sex scenes, vulgar-talk, and drug use. It is unacceptable and borderline pornography on a channel that receives a bulk of its viewers from teenagers that will be easily influenced by the promotion of these teenage sex and drug scenes.
